

ORDINANCE NO. 123

ENTITLED AN ORDINANCE TO PROMOTE
PATRONAGE FOR THE CITY WATER WORKS.

From residents and property holders residing off the line of the city mains and providing for the relief of patrons of part expense of laying of water pipes by the city.

Be it ordained by the Board of Trustees of the incorporated town of Las Animas, Colorado.

SECTION 1. That permission be granted to all citizens of Las Animas residing off the line of the city main to tap the said mains in conformity to provisions now existing relative to such tapping and convey water therefrom to their respective property. Provided that the pipes so laid for conveyance of water shall be of a dimension of not less than two inches and provided further that the residents along the line of pipes laid by virtue of the provisions of this ordinance shall have the right with the permission of the town authorities to tap and use water from said pipes. And also further provided that persons who have the right with the permission of the Board of Trustees to furnish water to sheep or cattle in quantities for fattening purposes or otherwise shall furnish and provide mains at their own expense.

SECTION 2. To residents and property holders taking advantage of the provisions of this ordinance the town of Las Animas will refund in water rent to such persons the expense entailed by them in laying pipes along the streets of the town and will further bear the expense of the difference of three quarter inch and two inch pipe.

SECTION 3. Residents residing off the line of the water mains desiring to take advantage of the provisions of this ordinance must guarantee the use of water in residences and lots on a majority of the lots in the block to which water is sought to be conveyed.

SECTION 4. The expense thus entailed by the town in paying part of the purchase price of pipes as hereinbefore set out and shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the city.

SECTION 5. All work done in laying pipe along any block will be advertised in some newspaper published in the town, calling for proposals to furnish and lay the same and the contract will be let to the lowest responsible bidder, providing the bid is considered reasonable by the council. Specifications in said proposals stating separately the price for excavating and the price for pipe.

SECTION 6. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 7. This ordinance shall take effect five days after its publication in the BENT COUNTY DEMOCRAT, the official paper of the town of Las Animas.

NOTE.—Passed at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the incorporated town of Las Animas, a majority of the whole number of the members elected to said Board concurring by the following vote, yeas; Geo. E. McCauley, William B. Peart, Geo. J. Kramer, Benjamin Neher, Wm. H. Stone, T. H. Marshall. Nays, none.
